Saturday, May 7, 7:00 pm

Monday, May 9, 8:00 pm

ANTWERP CENTRAL takes the viewer on a journey through the physical and mental space of Antwerp's railway. Director Peter Krüger approaches Antwerp Central Railway Station as a magical realistic location where present and past, history and daily life, fiction and reality are in constant flux.

BIG BROTHER BRITAIN

2009, Bertan Cakgoz, 4 minutes

Friday, May 6, 5:15 pm

Sunday, May 8, 5:15 pm

This animated film explores clandestine security measures that invade the private lives of citizens.

CASTRUM

2009, Angelo Grasso, 7 minutes

Friday, May 6, 5:15 pm

Sunday, May 8, 5:15 pm

The Mayor of the City decided to create a new settlement. He didn't want to conceive just a city plan, but to reveal a new emotion, a new political vision. He repeated, "The city is too important to put it into the hands of the architects."

CITIZEN ARCHITECT – SAMUEL MOCKBEE AND THE SPIRIT OF THE RURAL STUDIO

2010, Sam Wainwright Douglas, 60 minutes

Saturday, May 7, 7:30 pm

Sunday, May 8, 8:45 pm

Hale County, Alabama is home to some of the most impoverished communities in the U.S. It is also home to Auburn University's Rural Studio, one of the most prolific and inspirational design-build outreach programs ever established. Citizen Architect is a documentary film chronicling the late Samuel Mockbee – artist, architect, educator, and founder of the Rural Studio.

CITIZEN LAMBERT: JOAN OF ARCHITECTURE

2009, Teri Wehn-Damisch, 52 minutes

Friday, May 6, 7:15 pm

Sunday, May 8, 1:00 pm

This film offers a unique glimpse into the world of Phyllis Bronfman Lambert, renowned Canadian architect, urban activist, patron, and founder of the Canadian Centre for Architecture (CCA) in Montreal. The film plays on polarities: biography versus autobiography; public image versus private persona; and the view from outside versus the more intimate realm of self-reflection.

CONTEMPORARY DAYS: THE DESIGNS OF LUCIENNE AND ROBIN DAY

2010, Murray Grigor, 77 minutes

Saturday, May 7, 3:00 pm

Sunday, May 8, 3:15 pm

Robin and Lucienne Day transformed British design after World War II with striking furniture and textiles that signaled a new era of modernist sensibilities for everyday living. Robin's revolutionary furniture designs introduced materials such as plastic, steel, and plywood to homes, offices, and schools.

DUMPSTER POOLS

2009, Kelly Loudenberg, 5 minutes

Friday, May 6, 7:00 pm

Saturday, May 7, 3:30 pm

Saturday, May 7, 3:15 pm

Sunday, May 8, 3:00 pm

This is the story of 43 columns designed by Philippe Starck for his most important architectural project, Alhóndiga Bilbao, the new cultural center of the Basque city. The French designer aspired to have the columns represent the icons of global cultures across the ages.

HEADSPACE 1

2010, Stanislav Roudavski, 4 minutes

Saturday, May 7, 7:30 pm

Sunday, May 8, 8:45 pm

This short invites architecture students to take ideas from within their heads and place them, literally, on the outside.

HOW MUCH DOES YOUR BUILDING WEIGH, MR. FOSTER?

2010, Carlos Carcas & Norberto López Amado, 78 minutes

Thursday, May 5, 8:15 pm, 8:45 pm

Monday, May 9, 8:15 pm

The film traces the rise of one of the world's premier architects, Norman Foster and his unending quest to improve the quality of life through design. Portrayed are Foster's origins and how his dreams and influences inspired the design of emblematic projects such as the largest building in the world Beijing Airport, the Reichstag, the Hearst Building in New York and works such as the tallest bridge ever in Millau France. In the very near future, the majority of mankind will abandon the countryside and live entirely in cities. Foster offers some striking solutions to the problems that this historic event will create.

Friday, May 6, 5:00 pm

Saturday, May 7, 1:00 pm

In 1969 world-renowned architects Robert Venturi and Denise Scott Brown designed the world's first pop-art house. Forty years later, when the couple learns that their 'child' will be demolished in ten days, they enlist their son Jim and friend/colleague, Fred Schwartz to save the house. When two devoted Venturi fans agree to adopt the house, Fred and Jim team up to get the job done.

SPACE, LAND AND TIME: UNDERGROUND ADVENTURES WITH ANT FARM

2010, Elizabeth Federici and Laura Harrison, 78 minutes

Friday, May 6, 9:00 pm

Sunday, May 8, 5:30 pm

This is the first film to consider the work of the 1970's architecture collective Ant Farm, best known for its iconic land-art piece, Cadillac Ranch. Radical architects, video pioneers, and mordantly funny cultural commentators, the Ant Farmers created a body of deeply subversive work that questioned the boundary today. Incorporating breathtaking archival video, new footage shot over ten years and animation based on zany period sketches, this film is about the joy of creation in a time when there were no limits.
